To whom it may concern,

Lyons Roofing is a very strong and reliable business partner of Pro-Tech Products, Inc. Their ownership and management genuinely believe that every customer counts and strives to make sure each of their employees feels the same. Lyons Roofing can be counted on to make sound decisions based on the best thing for each individual roof even when those decisions may cost them a job. Their philosophy of putting on a good solid roof is one of the major reasons that we have included them in our Certified Contractor program. By putting on quality roofs, making sure that their customers understand the work they are doing and standing behind their work 100%, Lyons Roofing is not just making the lives of their customers better, but they are making the roofing industry itself a better industry.

Pro-Tech Products, Inc. is proud to have Lyons Roofing as a business partner.
